

Daniela Egger

Heidelberg, Germany | (+49) 123-4567-89 | daniela.egger@gmail.com | LinkedIn: <https://de.linkedin.com/in/daniela-egger>

Objective

Motivated Business Administration Bachelor student with a concentration in Human Resources, seeking a part-time internship in HR recruiting.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (Concentration: Human Resources)

Skills

- Recruitment & Sourcing: Familiar with sourcing candidates through job boards, LinkedIn, and networking events. Basic experience with Applicant Tracking Systems (ATS).
- Communication: Strong written and verbal communication skills honed through coursework and volunteering. Able to engage effectively with diverse groups of people.
- Time Management: Proven ability to manage multiple tasks and deadlines, balancing academic and extracurricular activities while maintaining high performance.
- Tech-Savvy: Comfortable with Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Google Workspace, and social media platforms for recruitment.
- Problem Solving: Able to assess challenges and offer innovative solutions with attention to detail.

Experience

Administrative Assistant

Mannheim University, September 2025 – Present

- Provide administrative support to the Human Resources department, assisting with scheduling, document management, and event coordination.
- Support recruitment efforts by maintaining applicant records and scheduling interviews.
- Collaborate with team members to organize recruitment events, improving outreach to potential candidates.
- Ensure efficient office operations by handling incoming communications and responding to inquiries.

Peer Mentor

Mannheim University, September 2024 – Present

- Guide incoming freshmen through their academic and social transition, offering advice on time management, study strategies, and campus resources.
- Develop strong relationships with mentees, providing a listening ear and helping them feel more connected to the university community.
- Coordinate group events and activities to foster a sense of belonging among first-year students.